Councilmember Lori Murdock read the request for the special meeting submitted by Councilmember Murdock, Daniels, and Honomichl to hold the special meeting.

1. New Business:

a. Consider Resolution 1056 Specifying Amounts of Ad Valorem Tax for the 2022 Budget. Mike Brungardt, City Administrator, led the discussion on this item. He discussed Senate Bill 13 and the notifications requirements. He discussed that the difference between the revenue-neutral rate and the mill levy proposed by the governing body in September is .8 mills. The monetary impact on property tax is estimated to be $80,000. Mr. Pat. Reavey, City Attorney, spoke on his conversations with the Johnson County legal staff. He discussed the alternatives proposed by city staff. The Council discussed the timeline of events with Johnson County.

Mayor Walker asked how the county develops its revenue-neutral rate. Mr. Brungardt informed the council that the revenue-neutral rate is based on the property tax dollars collected in the previous year's budget. The council discussed the financial impact of the reduced levy on city finances.

Motion Councilmember Murdock to approve Resolution 1056 Specifying Amounts of Ad Valorem Tax for the 2022 Budget: Second by Councilmember Daniels.
